DESCRIPTION

The essential need for a return to manual work and to a more human scale led her to leave architecture to reconvert herself to ceramics. During a two-year stay, between 2016 and 2018, Celine trains with master craftsmen in the historic Chinese and world-renowned porcelain city of Jingdezhen. Upon her return to France, Celine founded Atelier Zû, a creative studio focused on porcelain. In her Parisian studio, Céline Salomon did not cut the links with her former profession. She creates pieces of fu
